

LITURGY FOR THE THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ENTRANCE PROCESSION

Lord, Jesus Christ 447

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

FIRST READING 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink. She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. Please he said, bring me a scrap of bread in your hand. As the Lord your God lives, she replied, I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die. But Elijah said to her, Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth. The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Response: My soul, give praise to the Lord.

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger and upholds the widow and orphan.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age.

SECOND READING Hebrews 9:24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL Mark 12:38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.' He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

PREPARATION OF GIFTS HYMN

Take my life and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee.
Take my moments and my days, let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hand, O Lord above, fill each moment with your love.
Take my feet, and let them be always walking, Lord, with thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King.
Take my lips, and let them be always giving praise to thee.

Take my will and make it thine; it shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart — it is thy own; it shall be thy royal throne

HOLY, HOLY

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna, in the highest. Hosanna, in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION

Dying you destroyed our death. Rising you restored our life.
Lord, Jesus, come in glory.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Give me joy in my heart 274

THIRTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME Sunday 11th November 2006 Remembrance Day

Jesus warns his listeners to beware of the outward show of religion which is simply a sham – seeking to be noticed and taking advantage of others while saying long-winded prayers. He drives home his point by contrasting such behaviour with that of the widow who handed over the little she had for the upkeep of the Temple.

In the one case the conduct outwardly mimics love of God, in the other the love is so real that it offers all it has and is highly commended.

Jesus recognises in the widow a heart reaction to God – her devotion is interior and does not depend on externals; it is self-sacrificing. The widow knows the love of God for her and trusts his providence. The hearts of the scribes, however, far from loving God are self-centred. They do not really know God or his love for them. So they select religious practices which suit their needs and ignore the rest. Jesus is urging us to avoid being like the scribes, and encouraging us to be like the widow, never afraid to give generously.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

“They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old; age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. at the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.”

Remembrance Sunday is the day traditionally put aside to remember all those who have given their lives for the peace and freedom we enjoy today. On this day people across the nation pause to reflect on the sacrifices made by our brave Service men and women.
