INTERVIEW OF THE MONTH

Mr Alex Kelly - Chair of Crime Prevention Panel

What made you want to become the Chairperson of the Carrick Crime Prevention Panel?

I joined Maybole Community Council and part of that commitment was to represent the council on various groups. One of the committee's I chose to join was Carrick Crime Prevention Panel, I saw that as a way to help the people of the Carrick Area to combat the fear of crime, I became Chair in 1989 and still am to date.

Was there anything else you wanted to be?

No. I have always enjoyed doing my voluntary work, especially my work with the Crime Prevention Panel.

Who was your best friend at school?

My older brother.

What's your favourite food?

Sausage, egg & chips but it's not good for the waistline!

What's the scariest thing you've done?

Meeting my sister Irene for the first time after 46yrs. It was a very stressful time, with thoughts of would she like me? Or would I like her? As it was we got on very well and have stayed in touch to this day.

What's the most exciting thing you've done?

Representing Carrick Cumnock & Doon Valley at the State opening of the Scottish Parliament October 2004. I met Cardinal O'Brian and had my photo taken with him.

If you could go anywhere in the world where would you go and why?

I would stay in Scotland, we have a great country.

Is it true that you were once in a band?

Yes, we formed the band Gyro in 1964 and performed until 1972. I still have the photos to prove it.

What's your favourite book?

I do not have one.

Who's the most famous person you've met in person?

Prime Minister Tony Blair at 10 Downing Street London.

It was a wooden train set; my Godmother bought it for me.

Mr Slaven. He was my Headmaster at St. Peter's Aberdeen.

What is your favourite Halloween costume?

Superman.

What is your most embarrassing moment?

I don't really get embarrassed.

Have you got a message for the youth?

Respect your elders and stay on the right side of the law, no matter what.
